BACK BORIS

for a greater London

London transport is a mess. How come you pay more every year yet things just seem to get worse? Rush hour should be re-named crush hour. It's time for some fresh thinking. Let's have new orbital bus routes for the outer boroughs and a free bike hire scheme in central London. Let's have a real-time GPS bus mapping service. Let's have a flexible Congestion Charge zone, and let's scrap the proposed £25 fee. Let's support river services and demand better rail services. Let's get going to get Londoners moving. Log on to backboris.com to read a new manifesto for transport – and Back Boris on May 1st to make a change for the better in London.
